

Epistle Article: August 2010

Mormonism in America
By Jory Sandusky

How did the Church of Latter Day Saints go from being the ultimate outcast of society to the embodiment of American Culture in just three generations? Join me in August and September for a six-week course as we articulate the differences between the Episcopal and Mormon world-views as well as explore the mysteries, the drama, and the allure of this truly American faith tradition!

Please note the NEW dates for this course.

When? Wednesday Evenings 7pm-8:30 8/11, 8/18, 9/1, 9/8, 9/15, 9/22
Where? Six evening courses at St. Paul's Walnut Creek Livingston Conference Room
One visit to the Mormon Temple in Oakland on a Saturday (TBD).
How? Instruction will utilize multi-media, discussion, and some reading.
Who? Anyone 14 years and older

With 800 converts a day, 50,000 full time missionaries around the globe, donations in excess of $2 million a day, and with more Mormons in California than any state outside of Utah, shouldn't you know a bit more about their faith?

Please RSVP or if you have questions: jorysandusky@yahoo.com